Thanksgiving is almost here—although we cannot tell until after the game just how much we have to be thankful for. However, if there is nothing else for us to rejoice over, there is Thanksgiving itself; always a festive season, it can be made into a successful understudy for Christmas. However, some Columbians have not forgotten others' misfortunes in remembering their own good luck. The Kappas and Pi Phis are thankful that Miss Margaret Rollins put them up to adopting their war babies, so that somewhere in France the holiday has a part in the fun of two French kiddies. Indeed, since the Pi Phis got the picture of their baby, looking very French and appealing, they have been busy planning a Christmas box to send—not one packed just with useful things, but a truly Christmas affair of tinsel and tissue paper and trinkets and toys and red ribbon and mistletoe. This is a particularly neutral act because, as everyone knows, Christmas is a neutral season.

"Are you going to the game?" is a question heard on all sides just now, and the fact that nearly everyone is, is proven by the large sale of tickets. The local sororities and fraternities will be entertained at Lawrence next Wednesday night with dinners, dances and all the other social "properties" that go with a big game.

The Phi Delta Theta fraternity will have as dinner guests this noon, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stephens, Miss Laura Stephens, Philip Stephens, Mrs. O. B. Campbell of St. Joseph, Mrs. C. M. Owen of Brookfield, Miss Helen Moore and Miss Clara Dunn. Mrs. Owen will spend Thanksgiving in Columbia with her son, David Owen. Monday night the fraternity will give a dinner party with Mrs. Owen and Mrs. Campbell as guests of honor.

Dean and Mrs. Eldon R. James, Dr. and Mrs. George Lefevre and C. Wilson will be dinner guests at the Beta house today.

Andrew Bass of St. Louis is a guest at the Sigma Chi house for the weekend.

The Delta Tau Delta fraternity gave its annual Thanksgiving banquet for the freshmen Saturday night at the chapter house.

The Phi Gamma Delta fraternity entertained its freshmen with a dinner at the chapter house Saturday night.

The Kappa Sigma fraternity gave an informal dance last Friday night at the chapter house. The rooms were decorated with yellow chrysanthemums.

The Phi Kappa Psi fraternity moved into its new house on Providence road last night. The members have set December 15 as the date for a reception, to be followed by a formal dance.

The Chi Omega sorority gave a bunking party for its freshmen members Saturday night.

Mrs. W. G. Manly gave a tea Friday afternoon in honor of her cousin, Miss Mary Patrick of Chicago. Miss Marion Clark of Warrensburg received with Mrs. Manly and Miss Patrick, and assisting were Misses Cecil Fife, Clara Dunn, Mary Lee, Helen Adair, Helen Robnett, Jessie Hill, Mary El-liff, Marjorie Jones and Anna Pape. The decorations were yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Jeanne, (on the right), the Orphan Whom the Pi Phis Are Caring For in France.

Mrs. E. L. Mitchell gave a bridge party Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. H. Lumsden and Mrs. James M. Carpenter of St. Louis and Mrs. John Sehon of San Diego, Cal. The first prize was won by Miss Juliet Bowling and guest prizes were given to each of the honorees. Pink roses and lilies of the valley were the decorations.

Mrs. C. B. Rollins gave a family bridge party last night.

Mrs. J. T. Mitchell gave a small tea Friday afternoon for her guest, Mrs. Clayton of Los Angeles, Cal. The guests were limited to the friends of Mrs. Clayton.

Mrs. Isidore A. Barth gave a bridge party Thursday afternoon. The prizes were won by Mrs. Stanley Smith and Mrs. I. O. Hockaday.

Miss Margaret Rollins entertained at bridge Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. James M. Carpenter, Mrs. John Sehon and Mrs. W. H. Lumsden. Prizes were won by Mrs. C. C. Bowling, Mrs. Guy L. Noyes, Mrs. E. L. Mitchell and Miss Juliet Bowling. Corsage bouquets were given to the honorees.

Dr. and Mrs. Woodson Moss will give a series of Sunday afternoon sacred musical recitals in the chapel of Dorsey Memorial Hall. The program will occupy an hour and will be followed by an informal tea. The programs will be given by faculty and students of the college, Columbia musicians, and some out-of-town musicians. These musical teas are given in honor of the college faculty and will take the place of the usual annual reception. The first of this series will be given this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mrs. J. P. McBaine gave a children's party yesterday afternoon for her daughter, Ann. Games were played and two prizes given to the winners.

Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Manly and their guest, Miss Mary Patrick, will be dinner guests at the Pi Beta Phi house today.
